- The Read Report " Dannika Dark remains the only author to give me cold chills while reading. Dark's writing was impeccable as is her usual, her characters were intricately depicted, and the mystery was good. The action had me on the edge of my seat." - Rabid Reads "It was utterly addictive.Lots of action, trouble, and suspense all of which had me listening into the wee hours and ignoring my ...

This review was originally posted on (un)Conventional Bookviews Even if Closer is set in the Mageri universe, which I know and love, it took me a while to invest with the story, since most of it happened over the span of just a few hours, and Kane and Caroline were the only characters. Closer is a strange little story, where most of the action happens inside of Caroline's head, while she is ...

Dannika Dark is great about creating strong female characters and she doesn't disappoint with Kat! I think she's one of my favorites of Ms. Dark's. She's a down to earth, klutz, who says exactly what's on her mind and can hold her own. I hope we get to see a little more of her and Prince in the next Seven Series novel.
